Explain Why*AI Explanation

This job posting is very likely a scam because legitimate companies never ask you to pay a 'processing fee' or any money to apply for a job or receive training. The offer of high pay (₹50,000–₹70,000) for a work-from-home role with no experience is unrealistic, and the 'limited positions, immediate joining' creates false urgency. These are classic red flags designed to pressure you into paying, with little to no chance of a real job ever materializing.
